

Foundation Grants

United Methodist Foundation of West Virginia, Inc.

Guidelines

- Foundation grants are primarily intended to help initiate programs, projects or activities – especially those that are innovative, new or acutely needed. Our priority is to fund activities in the conference that have the capacity of enriching many or all local churches' ministries. In general, Foundation grants are not intended to provide for personnel costs, sustaining support, or to fund the existing regular operational obligations of a church or agency. Grants are generally not awarded to pay for personal ministry expenses, local church building capital improvements or maintenance.
- Notwithstanding the previous bullet point, the United Methodist Foundation of West Virginia has temporarily expanded our Grant Guidelines to help support ongoing ministries due to the challenges churches and ministries of the West Virginia Annual Conference are currently facing arising from COVID-19 and the economic downturn occasioned by it,. Applications should request funds to support and continue ministries that are consistent with the mission of the Conference, and funds are to be used for essential services provided by the local church and the missional needs of the communities served by local churches. Health, safety, and protection issues may be considered. The need for funds for ongoing ministries must be directly related to the COVID-19 pandemic. Grants will not be awarded to cover the costs associated with clergy or lay staff salaries or benefits.
- We will avoid becoming the perpetual funder for any ongoing program or ministry.
- We target our resources primarily to United Methodist programs and ministries of the West Virginia Annual Conference.
- We want to be targeted and strategic in our grant-making, preferring to make fewer substantial commitments, rather than diluting our impact by spreading our resources thinly over many small requests.
- We conscientiously attempt to communicate with conference leadership to better understand the Conference's needs and opportunities.
